Note for the Reader.

The present is the seventh volume of the Registers of the Diocese of St. Asaph which has been completed by the Shropshire Parish Register Society. It contains the seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth, eleventh, and twelfth volumes of the voluminous Registers of Oswestry. This Register is now completed to the year 1812, and as printed is more complete than the original Register, thanks to the kindness of Archdeacon Thomas in supplying a number of missing entries from the Bishop's Transcripts preserved at St. Asaph.

In this, as in previous volumes, the entries are printed in abstract form, all mere verbiage being omitted, although every fact is recorded, and all items, other than the usual entries of Baptisms Marriages and Burials, being printed in full. For the abbreviations adopted, reference must be made to the "Notes to the Reader" at the beginning of the earlier volumes.

For the transcript of the present Volume our thanks are due to Miss Rachel Leighton, who has also collated the transcript with the original Registers, and has passed the proofs through the press. To her is due in large measure the bringing out of the entire Oswestry Register to 1812.

In this Volume there is a noticeable absence of "ap" names, so frequent in the first and second Volumes, and the names will be found indexed under the surnames throughout, save in the case of a few Welsh names, where they are indexed under the first Christian name. The "ap" names are not indexed in the same way in the several Volumes; and before searching them, the Notes to the Reader and the Introductions to each Volume should be consulted.

Thanks are due to the late and present Vicars of Oswestry or leave to print the Register, and for facilities afforded in transcription and collation, and to Archdeacon Thomas for much help afforded throughout the issue of the entire Register.

The Register

of Oswestry.

VOLUME IV.

Oswestry Registers.

The fourth and concluding Volume of the Registers of Oswestry, issued by the Shropshire Parish Register Society, comprises Volumes VII, VIII, IX, X, XI and XII as given in the Parish Register Abstract of 1831, which are thus described :—

Nos. VII, VIII. Bur. 1751—1812.
Nos. IX—XII. Marr. 1755—1812, also Bap. Bur. (for the House of Industry) 1783—1789.

Volume VII, which is marked Vol. 5 on the Cover, contains entries of Burials from 1750 to 1781. It is a book of parchment leaves, bound in boards, with leather back and corners, size 14 inches by 9½ inches, and is in excellent condition. There are no entries of any special interest, except the burial on 8 February 1773 of a centenarian : "Old Jane Reese late of Chirk aged 103." There is also a long record of a case arising in 1671 out of Mr. Owen Morgan's Will. The premises charged with his charity and devised to the Haberdashers Company having been burnt in the Great Fire of London in 1666, the payment had fallen into arrears, and the Parson and Churchwardens sued the Company. Judgment was given in favour of the plaintiffs, and the defendants were ordered to pay in addition to the annuity of £20 five pounds a year until the arrears of £110 should be cleared. (See pp. 109-112.)

Volume VIII, which is described as Vol. XII, contains entries of Burials from 1782 to 1812. It is a book of parchment leaves, bound in leather, size 13½ inches by 8½ inches, and is in excellent condition. From July 1803 the ages of the deceased persons are usually given. There is a curious entry on 21 February 1805 of the burial of a midwife who in thirty years "received into the world 1673 children in this town and neighbourhood." At the end of the Volume is a list of "Paupers Burials since October 1st, 1783," the names presumably of those persons for whom the Government duty of threepence per burial was not paid. It extends until October 1789. There are pencil notes on the last page of the Burials—

Rev. Mr. Trevor, Vicar, buried 5th March 1784, stated to have been Vicar near 50 years.
Rev. Turner Edwards, Vicar, buried 21st Jan. 1803.
Rev. Danl. Griffiths, Vicar, buried 21 Jan. 1808.
Rev. John William Bourke, Vicar, buried Aug. 1823.
Mrs. Sarah Venables buried June 1807 (in the chancel).
Rev. Joseph Venables buried Aug. 1810 (84).

Volume IX. contains Marriages from 1755 to 1761. It is a book of parchment leaves, in boards and paper, size 14½ inches by 10 inches, and is in good condition, with the exception of a few leaves at the beginning, which are missing. Fortunately, through the kindness of Archdeacon Thomas, these missing entries, 39 in number, which extend from 16 May 1754 to 6 October 1755, have been supplied from the Bishop's Transcripts preserved at St. Asaph, as also have 19 entries at the end of the Volume from 21 April to 7 November 1760.

Volume X. contains Marriages from 1761 to 1778, and is a book of parchment leaves in boards and paper, size 14½ inches by 10 inches. The condition is good, except that one or more leaves at the beginning are missing. These entries, which extend from 18 February to 8 December 1761, twenty-four in number, have also been supplied from the Bishop's Transcripts by Archdeacon Thomas.

Volume XI. contains Marriages from 1778 to 1800. It is a book of parchment leaves in good condition, bound in leather boards with two brass clasps. Its size is 14½ inches by 10 inches.

Volume XII. contains Marriages from 1800 to 1812. It is a book of parchment leaves, in boards and paper, size 14½ inches by 10 inches, and is in good condition.

With the addition of the three groups of missing marriage entries, supplied from the Transcripts, the printed Register of Oswestry is now complete and perfect.

Among the few details of the entries in Vols. VII and VIII we have noted under 1760, the burial of "a stranger from Llansilin who came to ye faire and died at Oerly Hall, by going whom."

1769, the curious name of "Aston Chears a boy nursing at Charles Felton's."
1792, Richard Morris, a conjuror, aged 85, buried.
1795, "A traveiling tinker a lunatick," buried.
1805, "Elizabeth Basnett, midwife, who during her practice for 30 years received into the world 1,673 children in this town and neighbourhood, aged 68."
1809, "Joseph Ferzura, servant to Lord Dungannon 75."

An outbreak of small pox appears to have broken out in the town in 1792, as no fewer than thirteen deaths were due to that cause.

The last year of this Volume, 1812, records instances, in striking contrast to the present Entente Cordiale, of the presence of French Prisoners of War on parole in the town, e.g.

Feb.	21.	Claude Goujon of Oswestry and Elizabeth Hawkes of Oakhampton, lic.	mar.
April	9.	Mons Tagost a French Prisoner of War on Parole at Oswestry about 48	bur.
,,	15.	J [blank] Dellehe d. of a French Prisoner 2	bur.
June	1.	Frederick [blank] a French Prisoner 63	bur
July	3.	[blank] a French Prisoner	bur.

It only remains to add that the transcript of the Registers comprised in the present Volume was made at the cost of Miss Rachel Leighton, who has herself collated the transcript with the original Registers and has seen the proofs through the press. To her kindness the members of the Society are greatly indebted.

A word of thanks is also due to Mr. T. M. Carpendale for compiling the Indexes to the four Volumes, a work of considerable difficulty in the earlier volumes, owing to the long Welsh names, and the difficulties connected with their proper arrangement. To understand the Indexes, the searcher must consult the Notes to the Reader and the Introductions to the several Volumes.

For permission to print these Registers we are indebted to the Rev. M. B. Lutener, Vicar of Oswestry.
